

I am very pleased with the wisconsin No-call Law.... Telemarketing is very irritating to say the least. It would be a great day on Earth if Telemarketing was ban all together. In stead of having to sign up to not get calls, people who want the calls should have to sign up to get them. It would be interesting to see how many people would sign up.